SCHOLARSHIP AWARD APPLICATION

SECTION I. BACKGROUND

Source of Funding

Funding for the SLO LEAF Scholarships is raised through the SLO LEAF Golf Tournament.

Who Can Apply

- High school seniors bound for an accredited college, university or vocational training program, or any candidate currently enrolled in an accredited college, university or vocational training program, whose mother/father, or step-mother/step-father currently meet the criteria of the SLOLEAF assistance requirements. In addition, previous applicants or awardees may apply.

Selection Process

- A review panel comprised of a members of the SLOLEAF Board of Directors, and two members of the community not affiliated with SLOLEAF but appointed by the SLOLEAF Board of Directors, will make the final selection of scholarship fund recipient.
- Selections will be made based equally upon all of the following:
  - Academic achievement school activities (sports, clubs, etc.)
  - Community activities (church, volunteerism, sports, scouting, etc.)
  - A review of reference letters and application essays
- Any SLO LEAF BOARD OF DIRECTOR with a dependent applicant may not be on the Selection Committee or have any part in the selection.

Previous Awardees

Previous awardees of SLOLEAF scholarships may apply. However, they must attach a current copy of their grades to their application.

Distribution of Scholarship Funds

- The recipient of a scholarship shall notify the Scholarship Committee of the college or university of their choice no later than 30 days prior to their first day of class. Funds shall be distributed directly to the Finance Office at the recipient's school of choice. Recipients may identify the area they wish their funding to be used, ie: books and materials, tuition, or on-campus room and board. The awarded funds are to be used within the school year that they are awarded. The school year will include the fall and winter semesters.
